A family with generations in the pizza business. Larry, as the grandkids know him, has been in the business since 1955. He opened up in Lawrenceville in 1982 where his sons, Brad and Brett, worked until opening up their own location in Olney, Illinois in 2002 and their newest location that is in Mount Carmel, which opened in 2017. Now, the third generation is learning the craft. Cody, Joe and Allie Bobe now work together managing all locations. Two of Larry's other grandchildren are very involved as well. Delivering mouthwatering pizza and breadsticks. Bobe's Pizza is made from scratch and made from family with love. A tradition that we care deeply about!
